The Defence System

The President may receive the advice of the National Defence and Security Council. They exercise command of the Armed Forces, either directly or through the Secretary of Defence, who in turn has the Joint Staff as the highest military technical body for advice, planning, coordination and supervision. The Board of Commanders is the consultative body, composed of the Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Inspector General of the Armed Forces and the General Commanders of the Armed Forces. The Congress exercises the powers granted by the Constitution and permanently monitors defence-related issues through the National Defence Committee.

The Armed Forces

General Mission

The Armed Forces are formed to defend territorial integrity and sovereignty of the Republic, maintain peace, public order and the respect for the Constitution, the principles of free vote and rotation of the Presidents of the Republic.

They shall cooperate with the National Police to keep public order. They shall cooperate with the Secretaries of the State and other institutions, at their request, in tasks related to literacy, education, agriculture, protection of the environment, road systems, communications, health and agriculture reform. They shall participate in international peace missions, based on international treaties; provide logistic support on technical advice, communications and transportation in the fight against drug trafficking. They shall cooperate with personnel and means to face natural disasters and emergency situations which impact people and assets; as well as in protection and conservation programs for the ecosystem, and academic and technical training of their members, and other matters of national interest.

They shall also cooperate with public law-enforcement agencies, at the request of the Secretary of Security, to fight terrorism, arms trafficking and organized crime, as well as in the protection of the powers of the State and Elections Court, at the request of these, in their installation and operation. (Constitution, Sec. 272 and 274)

Specific Missions

Army

The Army is the Service responsible for defending the territorial integrity and sovereignty of the Republic in the land space.

Navy

The Navy contributes to the compliance with the constitutional mission established for the Armed Forces, mainly in the maritime, fluvial and lacustrian space and in the insular territory, maintaining the security and control of the sea coasts and borders and preserving maritime resources in territorial waters, in adjacent areas, exclusive economic zone and in the continental shelf.

Air Force

The Air Force contributes to defending the territorial integrity and sovereignty of the Republic especially regarding the air space.

Joint Staff

This is a higher technical military body to provide advice and carry out military planning, coordination and supervision, which reports to the Secretary of Defence.

Military Police of Public Order

Created in 2013 as a Special Command of the Armed Forces. Personnel that form part of the Military Police must undergo the same confidence tests that are given to the National Police. They must be accompanied by judges and prosecutors with jurisdiction and national competence. They may live outside of the country.

The Military Police of Public Order is obliged to cooperate in the defence of sovereignty and in the maintenance of public order, in accordance with the Constitution of the Republic.

The Command corps includes officers who have been educated at military academies from the beginning of their careers, different to those who develop a career in the civilian sphere and are then incorporated to the military.

Source: Information provided by the General Command of the Air Force, the General Command of the Navy and the Joint Staff.

Military Service

In constitutional terms, in times of peace, the military service is voluntary for all citizens aged between 18 and 30 years, on an educational, humanistic and democratic system basis.

The State, however, has the power to summon troops in accordance with the Military Service Act. In case of international war, all the Hondurans capable of defending and providing military service to the Motherland shall be called up as soldiers.

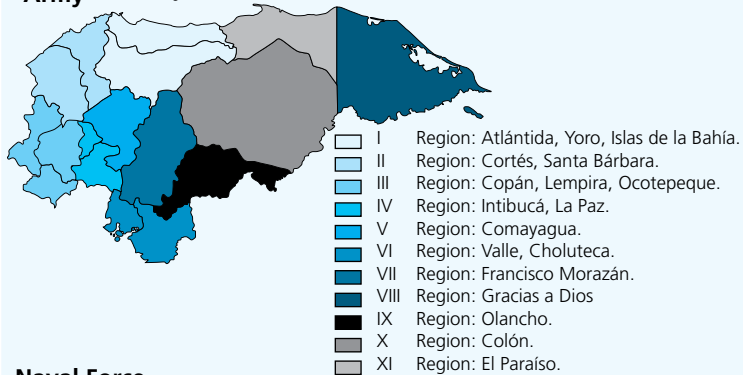

The duration of military service is 2 years. Entrance requirements are as follows:

- Register with the Military Register
- Pass the entrance examination.
- Pass the medical examination.

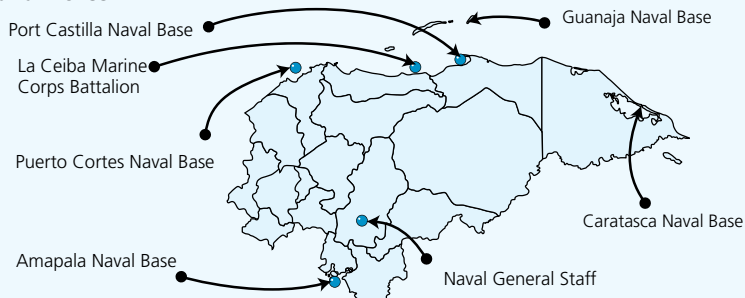

Pursuant to the Military Service Decree N° 98, the provision of military service in times of peace may compensate or be partially equivalent to certain professions, with practices in social services, under the control and command of the Armed Forces.

- Security

During 2013, two new units were created to collaborate in security: the Military Police – under the jurisdiction of the Armed Forces – and a special police unit named TIGRES.

Military Police of Public Order

It is a Special Command of the Armed Forces. Troops that form the Military Police must undergo the same 'confidence tests' that are currently practiced within the National Police. Must be accompanied by judges and prosecutors with national competence and jurisdiction.

Functions:

- Act rapidly in circumstances that affect public order, constitute emergencies, and/or affect people or their properties.
- Cooperate in the recuperation of areas where there is a presence of organized criminal groups or their activities
- Carry out investigation and intelligence tasks.
- Make arrests and place those arrested into the custody of the relevant authorities.

TIGRES Police Unit

Operates within the Inter-institutional Security and Special Comprehensive Government Security Response Strategy. It aims to provide a comprehensive response to the principal threats to public security through coordination between State institutions, such as the National Police, Public Prosecutor's Office, etc.

It is a special unit of the National Police under the leadership of the Director General, which can require the support of the Armed Forces.

Functions:

- Combat all manifestations of insecurity through police and interdisciplinary activities.
- Protection of lives and property.
- Maintenance of public order, crime prevention and control and arrests.
- The TIGRES have a specialist investigation unit.
- All members must pass confidence tests.

Public Security Operations - 2013

During 2012, the Armed Forces have executed operations to provide security to public transport, employing 500 personnel.

To reduce crime levels at the national level:

Operation Condor, Operation Caiman, Operation Libertad and Operation Relámpago.

Combatting drug trafficking:

Operation Martillo and Operation Boquerón.

Operation Jaguar:

For the control of highways and roads. Joint actions with public security forces, employing 500 personnel. Approximately 6,000 vehicles were registered with arms and drugs confiscated.

Operation Relámpago:

The Armed Forces and the Environment

Command of Support to the Management of Ecosystems and the Environment

Since 2006 the Armed Forces have collaborated through the Directorate of Ecological and Nature Support, which then became the Environmental and Ecological Management Support Command. Their role is to protect hydrographic basins, support the conservation of flora and fauna, and control national parks and forest reserves in order to prevent illegal forestry, control forest fires, engage in forest regeneration, prevent the illegal exploitation of marine resources and develop programs aimed at educating the population on these issues..

Specialized Unit in Ecosystems and the Environment

Created in 2011 through Decree N°41-2011, the Unit has 2,000 environmental soldiers, which are specialized in tasks related to the protection of the ecosystem, such as the protection of forests.

Dependent of the Chief of the Joint General Staff.

To be an environmental soldier, the Diploma in Environment certified by the Technical School of the Armed Forces is required.

In August 2013, a decree authorized the Secretariat of Defence and the Armed Forces to engage in the planting of land on their property for reforestation tasks and to utilise the profits from these nurseries to generate income that will be used to strengthen the Military Pension Institute (IPM). The decree establishes that the National Institute of Conservation, Forest Development and Wildlife (ICF) must provide free technical support and training to encourage the development of forestry and agro-forestry projects.

National Campaign against Forest Fires - 2014

Participating institutions:

- Armed Forces
- Forest Conservation Institute (ICF).
- Fire Service
- Permanent Contingency Commission (COPECO).

Objective: Reinforce actions against forest fires through educational actions and the coordination of an effective response between the institutions.

Forest fires reduced considerable in relation to 2013.

At least 6,000 persons, including soldiers, firemen, forest professionals and search and rescue officials are deployed at the national level in order to support the work of municipal governments and private entities.

Support of the Armed Forces in 'Plan de Auxilio XXI' (Support Plan XXI)

119 actions to assist the population following natural disasters through support to COPECO in 2013.

Crisis Management Exercise

In August 2013, 37 alumni officers from the Command and Chief of Staff Course of the Armed Forces, 15 instructors of the Armed Forces and personnel from COPECO carried out an exercise simulating the impact of a hurricane on national territory. Protocols were applied to react to this type of phenomenon with the aim of training personnel in order to provide support to the civilian population in case of emergency.

In September, following intense rains that affected the country, the Armed Forces placed personnel and equipment at the disposal of COPECO for the transfer of humanitarian assistance to affected areas. Furthermore, the Air Force sent two planes to Choluteca department where an operational center was developed for the distribution of aid to places that are unreachable by land. Additionally, the Navy carried out surveillance activities in the temporary refuges.
