

Mulheres, Paz e Segurança no Brasil

construindo pontes e superando desafios

Women, Peace and Security in Brazil: overcoming challenges and bridging gaps

Brasília, 13 March 2014

Instituto Rio Branco / Brazilian Ministry of External Relations

PROGRAM

8h50 Welcome

09h00-9h10 Opening session
Eduarda Passarelli Hamann, Igarapé Institute

09h10-09h30 Keynote Speaker
Counselor Ana Maria Duarte Amarante Brito, Coordinator of the Permanent Movement to Combat Domestic and Family Violence, National Justice Council

09h30-10h45 Session 1 – The importance of the “Women, Peace and Security” Agenda

What is the importance of integrating a gender approach to the international peace and security agenda? What do concepts like gender balance, gender mainstreaming and gender equality mean? What are the resolutions on “Women, Peace and Security” about? What is the role of member-states? What is the importance of engaging Brazil with this agenda?

Paz Tibiletti, RESDAL
Tamy Rebelo, University of São Paulo
Indranil Chakrabarti, DfID

Moderator: Laura Mitchell, NOREF

10h45-11h00 Coffee break

11h00-12h15 Session 2 – Women presence in peace processes: inclusive approaches to peace

What is the importance of having women in peace processes? How to engage more women in peace processes and how can they influence outcomes? How are diplomat women involved in peace processes? What is the presence of Brazilian diplomat women in Itamaraty- especially those directly engaged with international peace and security efforts?

Ana Grace Cabrera, UN Women Guatemala
Laura Michell, NOREF
Couns. Guilherme Friaça, Brazilian Ministry of External Relations

Moderator: Eduarda Passarelli Hamann, Igarapé Institute

12h20-13h30 Lunch

realização

apoio

Ministério das
Relações Exteriores

patrocínio

Mulheres, Paz e Segurança no Brasil

construindo pontes e superando desafios

13h30-14h45 Session 3 – The participation of uniformed women (military and police) in UN peace operations and especial political missions

What are the operational needs of having more uniformed women in the field? What are some of the UN's best practices in protection against gender based violence? How do other Latin American countries integrate a gender approach to peace operations and political missions? What is the presence of women in the Brazilian military and police (including functions and hierarchy)? What are the ideal and real possibilities of implementing policy changes?

Carina de los Santos, National Support System for Peacekeeping Operations - Uruguay
Lt. Col. Denise Aquino, Brazilian Military Police (PMDF)
Major CARLA Maria Clausi, Brazilian Army

Moderator: Joana Chagas, UN Women Brazil

14h45-15h15 Coffee break

15h15-16h45 Session 4 – Identifying key advances and challenges: how to advance the agenda in Brazil?

What are the key lessons learned in Brazil that can positively enhance the UN's actions? What are the main challenges in the national context? What are some concrete actions that can contribute to multilateral efforts towards international peace and security?

Gen. Paulo Sergio Melo de CARVALHO, Brazilian Ministry of Defense
Couns. Fernando Sena, Brazilian Ministry of External Relations
Dra. Najla Nassif Palmas, Military Justice Prosecutor
Antônio Jorge Ramalho, Instituto Pandiá Calógeras/MD and University of Brasilia

Moderator: Renata Giannini, Igarapé Institute

16h45-17h00 Closing Session

Nadine Gasmán, UN Women Brazil
Renata Giannini, Igarapé Institute